Deep in the Northwoods of Minnesota lies the Heartland Lakes – a place with pristine waters and unmatched access to the outdoors. When you visit Heartland Lakes, you connect with nature, family, and tradition.

HEARTLAND LAKES Communities

AKELEY

In 1902, Akeley was home to the world's largest sawmill and the bustling Red River Lumber Company. The same Crow Wing tributaries and the Paul Bunyan State Forest that made the sawmill successful, now make the area a destination for outdoor recreation.

DORSET See page 48

Dorset is a tiny town with the big claim to fame of being the Restaurant Capital of the World. The Taste of Dorset, held the first Sunday in August, is a must visit for food enthusiasts and features the most unique mayoral election.

ITASCA STATE PARK

Minnesota's oldest State Park was inhabited way before the Headwaters of the Mississippi were discovered. Visitors from all around the world trek there to experience the Headwaters of the Mississippi. Take a stroll through the park's old forests or enjoy a guided boat tour.

LAKE GEORGE

Lake George is known for great fishing and the annual Blueberry Festival on the last weekend of July. A parade, pig roast, outdoor gospel concert, and all the blueberries you can eat are just a few highlights of this hometown festival.

LAPORTE

Founded by pioneers, only the strong survived in this small town on Garfield Lake. Nestled in tall pines, Laporte is a great access point to the Paul Bunyan State Forest and the Paul Bunyan State Trail.

MENAHGA

A town incorporated in 1892, the word "Menahga" is Ojibwe for blueberry. The Gateway to the Pines is also the home of St. Urho Day, a holiday that the largely Finnish population takes very seriously.

NEVIS See pages 46-47

The World's Largest Tiger Muskie makes an excellent backdrop for this community that takes pride in its school and sports. Nevis started out as a railway village in 1899 and continues to grow. Let Lake Belle Taine be the setting for your next sunset boat ride or save the date for their monthly water ski shows.

OSAGE

Spend a day swimming and picnicking at Straight Lake to see why families return to Osage time and time again. The beach is left over from the days when loggers built dams to carry logs downstream.

PARK RAPIDS See pages 38-45

Ever since Earl Fuller dubbed the area the "Nation's Vacationland", Park Rapids has been a place of hospitality. The extra wide main street is a relic from the town's logging past and its middle parking now provides the perfect setting for a day of small town charm.

PARK RAPIDS DOWNTOWN

Park Rapids is a friendly small town with very wide streets, built back in the day to allow horse-drawn logging rigs to turn around. Shoppers walk under awning-covered sidewalks lined with boutiques, restaurants, a brewery, a wine bar and classic confectionary. Downtown Park Rapids is indeed a charming, fun place to be.

Giiwediniing Treaty Rights & Cultural Museum is the first Native independently owned Anishinaabe cultural museum in the State of Minnesota. Giiwediniing is a destination for those interested in the history of this land, and native agreements, treaties, and the waters. We feature both historic exhibits and emerging artists for our youth, elders and communities.

We want to provide an opportunity to see the world from an Anishinaabe worldview. This is a very historic area and a unique ecosystem of biodiversity where we do talk about that history in our exhibits. We recognize that in order for art to be accessible, we need to bring it out into the community and provide space for art in our everyday lives promoting access internally for our Anishinaabe people and externally as a tool for racial and social justice.

Giiwediniing is led by a team of Indigenous and local native historians, artists and community members. Giiwediniing also has a Gift Shop that offers authentic Indigenous and local native artisan gifts, and artwork with native authored books plus more.

A Top 10 Minnesota Main Street

State's most charming small town that you have to visit

So much in 4 blocks!

Explore one of the last main streets with parking in the middle, a legacy from the days when loggers needed to turn their six-horse teams around. Stroll the four blocks of downtown to discover our many independent stores and restaurants. You will enjoy the magic of watching fudge stirred to sweet perfection, an espresso bar with free wi-fi, terrific sandwiches and burgers, healthy snacks, homemade pies and more!

A variety of shopping!

Unique home decor and furniture will help you put finishing touches on your home or cabin – and you'll have no trouble finding just the right t-shirt, gift or souvenir to remember your visit. If you forgot to bring the right outfit, no worries. Learn about Ojibwe history and culture, shop at a Mexican market and explore a variety of new shops. Our friendly service and small-town feeling will make you feel right at home.

Enjoy a night on the town!

For evening fun, grab dinner downtown – choose from American, Italian, Mexican and Chinese. Then catch a movie at our theater with its classic neon marquee and three screens, or recharge with a cocktail or beer at a variety of local watering holes, including our brewery and a wine bar.

A calendar of local events!

See our calendar for special events year round and check the information kiosk in Pioneer Park on the second block of Main to find out what's happening now (or check events on our website). Pioneer Park is also where you'll find public restrooms. In summer, flowers decorating store fronts and hanging baskets on Main Street's carriage lights create a seasonal flower show with other decor changing with the seasons. Three large murals and sculptures add to the lively arts and culture scene. Welcome to Downtown Park Rapids!

Experience the Heart of Park Rapids

Discover up-north hospitality and a friendly hometown spirit when you “stroll and shop” Downtown Park Rapids. The extra-wide streets are lined with gift shops, boutiques, pubs, delis, art galleries, crafts and more. Relax on one of the many benches, and enjoy gourmet coffee, ice cream, and snacks. If you seek evening entertainment, our summer music series, 2nd Street Stage, features a beer garden and free live music every Thursday night. Take in a movie at the Art Deco theater and sample a variety of cuisines at our downtown restaurants.

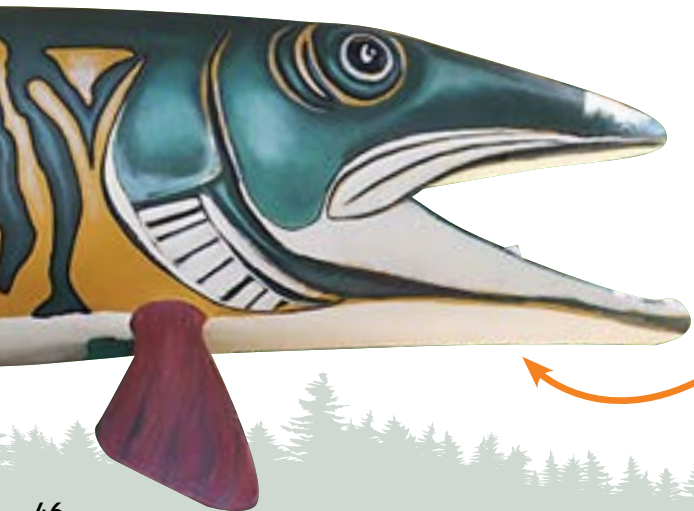

Visit our website or like us on  for more details!
